

Gorsky and DuPont Merge Art, Technology

DASA AWARDS BANQUET, 2007, Dallas Texas. Presenting the Lamar Hunt Family with original 36" x 36" acrylic on Canvas of Lamar Hunt

Lamar Hunt, 36"x 36" original acrylic on canvas by Vladimir Gorsky. Commissioned by DASA (Dallas All Sports Association) for presentation to Lamar Hunt Family at DASA Awards Banquet

Unveiling of the portrait of Dirk Nowitzki

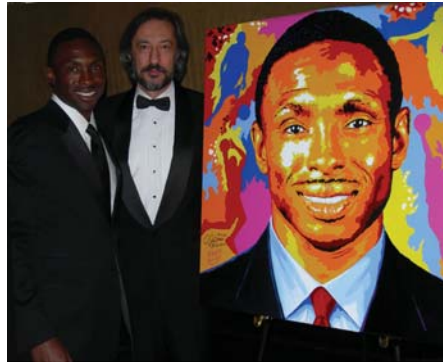

2007 NBA MVP Dirk Nowitzki (detail), 30 x 40, commissioned by DASA for live auction 2007

DuPont's trade show booth features Gorsky Tapestry

DuPont Imaging Technologies inaugurated their new grand format DuPont™ Artistri™ 3320 digital textile printer at the IFA Show in Las Vegas, reproducing the astonishing Tapestry of the Centuries created by internationally known artist Vladimir Gorsky. The painting captures 2000 years of world history on the original canvas measuring nearly 9' x 18'. They also reproduced the famous Las Vegas historical piece, Miracle in the Desert, (7.5' x 12.5').

Avery Johnson, Dallas Maverick's Coach with Gorsky and his portrait for the DASA Awards Banquet live auction in 2006, benefitting scholarship programs for underprivileged students

SKY BALL III

Roger Williams, Texas Secretary of State, Vladimir Gorsky and Tal Milan, of Milan Gallery at Sky Ball III, Ft. Worth Texas, honoring the families of our men and women in uniform. Sec. Williams bought the painting Red, White and Blue at the live auction for $11,000. 100% of the proceeds were donated by Gorsky to benefit the families of "our military brothers and sisters who are putting their lives in harm's way while serving our great nation and the cause of freedom."

Gary Turner, Business Development Manager for DuPont, Gorsky and Cash McMahon, Artist Agent, in Las Vegas.

LAS VEGAS ARTEXPO 2007

Vladimir Gorsky and Jeanette Gorsky, President and CEO of Gorsky Fine Art at the Las Vegas Artexpo in September of 2007

Presenting Lance Burton, Famous Magician in Las Vegas, his personal giclee of the Las Vegas historical painting, Miracle in the Desert